METROEAST COMMUNITY MEDIA PRODUCES DOCUMENTARY ABOUT FORMER MAYOR

(GRESHAM, OR) September 8, 2009 - MetroEast Community Media is happy to announce the debut of a short documentary on Gussie McRobert.

The piece spotlights the former mayor of Gresham and shares information about her life, the influences that led her to a life in politics and the changes she make while in office.

Several staff at MetroEast produced the segment: Serra Shiflett, Kate Reynolds, Emily Vidal and Jennifer Dynes. It is showing on various channels on the Comcast and Verizon FIOS network. It is also available for viewing on our website at www.metroeast.org under the “MetroEast Productions / Special Productions” link.

MetroEast Community Media was founded in 1984 and is a non-profit community television organization that provides opportunities to produce and cablecast Public Access, Educational and Governmental (PEG) programming. It administers eight cable channels and offers video production training to individuals, community groups and non-profit organizations. MetroEast also holds a construction permit for 91.1 FM that will be dedicated to airing local music, east county public affairs and supporting local art and culture.
