METROEAST COMMUNITY MEDIA
SELECTS NEW BOARD

(GRESHAM, OR) September 17, 2009 - MetroEast Community Media is happy to announce its 2009-2010 board of directors.

The members are: Robert Brown (Past President), Jon Chess, Jack Saling, Doug Sweet, Charity Fain, Dan LaGrande and Bruce Fife. The executive committee is Cathy Anderson (President), Andrea Watson (Vice President) and Travis Stovall (Secretary/Treasurer). A new member, Ryan Wines, joins this year's roster. He is the label manager for Beat the World Records, public relations and online marketing manager for R2C Group and principal manager for Pet Marmoset.

"I am thrilled to serve as the new president for the board," said Cathy Anderson, "and look forward to working with all the members on exploring and expanding our service to the community."

MetroEast Community Media was founded in 1984 and is a non-profit community television organization that provides opportunities to produce and cablecast Public Access, Educational and Governmental (PEG) programming. It administers eight cable channels and offers video production training to individuals, community groups and non-profit organizations. MetroEast also holds a construction permit for KZME radio that will be dedicated to local music, supporting local arts and culture and sharing information about east county public affairs.
